VENICE

Fact Sheet

Filled with museum-quality treasures, Aman Venice's home on the Grand Canal is the 16th-century Palazzo Papadopoli, one of the city's most significant buildings. The great 18th-century painter .Tiepolo once lived here, and his frescoes adorn the walls of many of the rooms. In the 19th century, the presiding Papadopoli family turned adjoining buildings into two gardens that, today, are among the city's rarest private green spaces. When Aman Venice was renovated in 2013, its sensitive incorporation of contemporary comforts won the palazzo a heritage award for Italy's best restoration.

Dining

Paying tribute to Italy's rich culinary heritage, Arva is a dining concept brought to life by Aman Venice's Executive Chef Matteo Panfilio. Situated on the first noble floor, Arva celebrates the shared enjoyment of uncomplicated flavours in a welcoming and convivial atmosphere.

Experience private cooking classes with the chef. Visit the Rialto Market to select the best ingredients, then return and learn to cook your chosen Venetian recipes before enjoying a delightful lunch.

Dine alfresco in Aman Venice's private gardens which boast the city's finest views over the Grand Canal. Creative inspiration for the Garden menu comes from daily forays to the local Rialto market.

The Bar at Aman Venice comes with a British twist, a nod to Lord Byron, boasting the largest selection of Gin in the city.
