The Amanoi Experience

Located on a striking and secluded stretch of Vietnam's coastline within the lush Nui Chua National Park, Amanoi is a natural paradise.

Here at the threshold of land and sea, Amanoi offers an array of outdoor adventures and authentic cultural experiences.

Trek amid myriad wildlife in our neighbouring UNESCO-listed Biosphere Reserve, embark on guided snorkelling expeditions of gin-clear waters or cruise the coast by glass-bottomed kayak.

On land, balance body and mind at Amanoi's lakeside spa before delving into the ancient world of the region's Cham people. Visit panoramic hilltop towers dating back to the 12th century or indulge in a sacred Cham dinner accompanied by a ceremonial blessing amid Amanoi's mystic jungle.

To book, please contact our Guest Assistant team. We kindly ask for a minimum of 24-hours' cancellation notice. Cancellations made within 24 hours will be charged in full. All prices are subject to 16.6% local tax and service charge.

Catamaran

Two-hour, half-day and full-day programmes available. Reservations are required at least 24 hours in advance. Weather permitting.

Drift into the rhythm of the sea with a catamaran journey across the calm, azure waters of Vinh Hy Bay. Whether bathed in the soft light of morning or chasing the final golden rays of sunset, each moment onboard is touched by nature's quiet splendour.

Savour unlimited food and drinks, including a curated selection of alcoholic beverages, as the sea breeze stirs gentle conversation and the crew tends to every detail. Between sips and sea spray, dive into crystal waters for a snorkel, glide on a paddleboard, cast a line, or simply let the coastline unfold before the eyes — a moving painting of cliffs, coves and sky.

Treks

Hugged by hills, Amanoi is a gateway to the 29,000-hectare Nui Chua National Park which rests within the Nui Chua UNESCO Biosphere Reserve - a rugged wonderland of diverse landscapes where hikers are rewarded with sweeping panoramas and myriad wildlife at every turn. From the resort, a network of trails lead guests on family-friendly rambles to picnics on secret beaches, or more challenging treks to the rock formations of Bai Da and the dramatic bay views of Goga Peak.

As it can get very hot during the day, we recommend trekking either early in the morning or late in the afternoon. Hats, walking shoes or trainers and sunscreen are recommended.

Treks are graded based on the following scale. Please note, weather conditions may impact the perceived difficulty level:

LEVEL ONE

Easygoing, this trek should not elevate heart rate too much.

LEVEL TWO

A light trek that should increase heart rate a little and requires trainers and reasonable attire.

LEVEL THREE

A trek that boosts heart rate and requires a moderate level of fitness. Proper walking attire and shoes or trainers recommended.

LEVEL FOUR

A more challenging trek for those who are experienced, physically fit and like something of a challenge. Minimal climbing may be involved.

LEVEL FIVE

This trek requires physical fitness, endurance and a sense of adventure. Many sections will include climbing up rocky or wild terrain. Only manageable if wearing the proper attire.

Goga Peak

Level one. Approximately 15-20 minutes each way.
Not recommended for children.

This short hike follows an inclining pathway up to Goga Peak. Best enjoyed at sunrise and the ambiance of sunset, spectacular views greet hikers at the apex, with Vinh Hy Bay, the East Sea, coastal rock formations and the southern city of Phan Rang unfolding all around.

Wild Cat Trek

Level two. Approximately 60 minutes.
Not recommended for children.
Distance: 1.5km.

Follow in the footsteps of the wild civet during this on-site hike. Snaking through the national park, the route allows hikers to discover different flora and fauna en route to a memorable viewpoint overlooking the lush surrounding landscape.

Trek and Picnic in Rock Park

Level two. Approximately 60-90 minutes; two and a half hours if combined with picnic.
Distance: 3km.

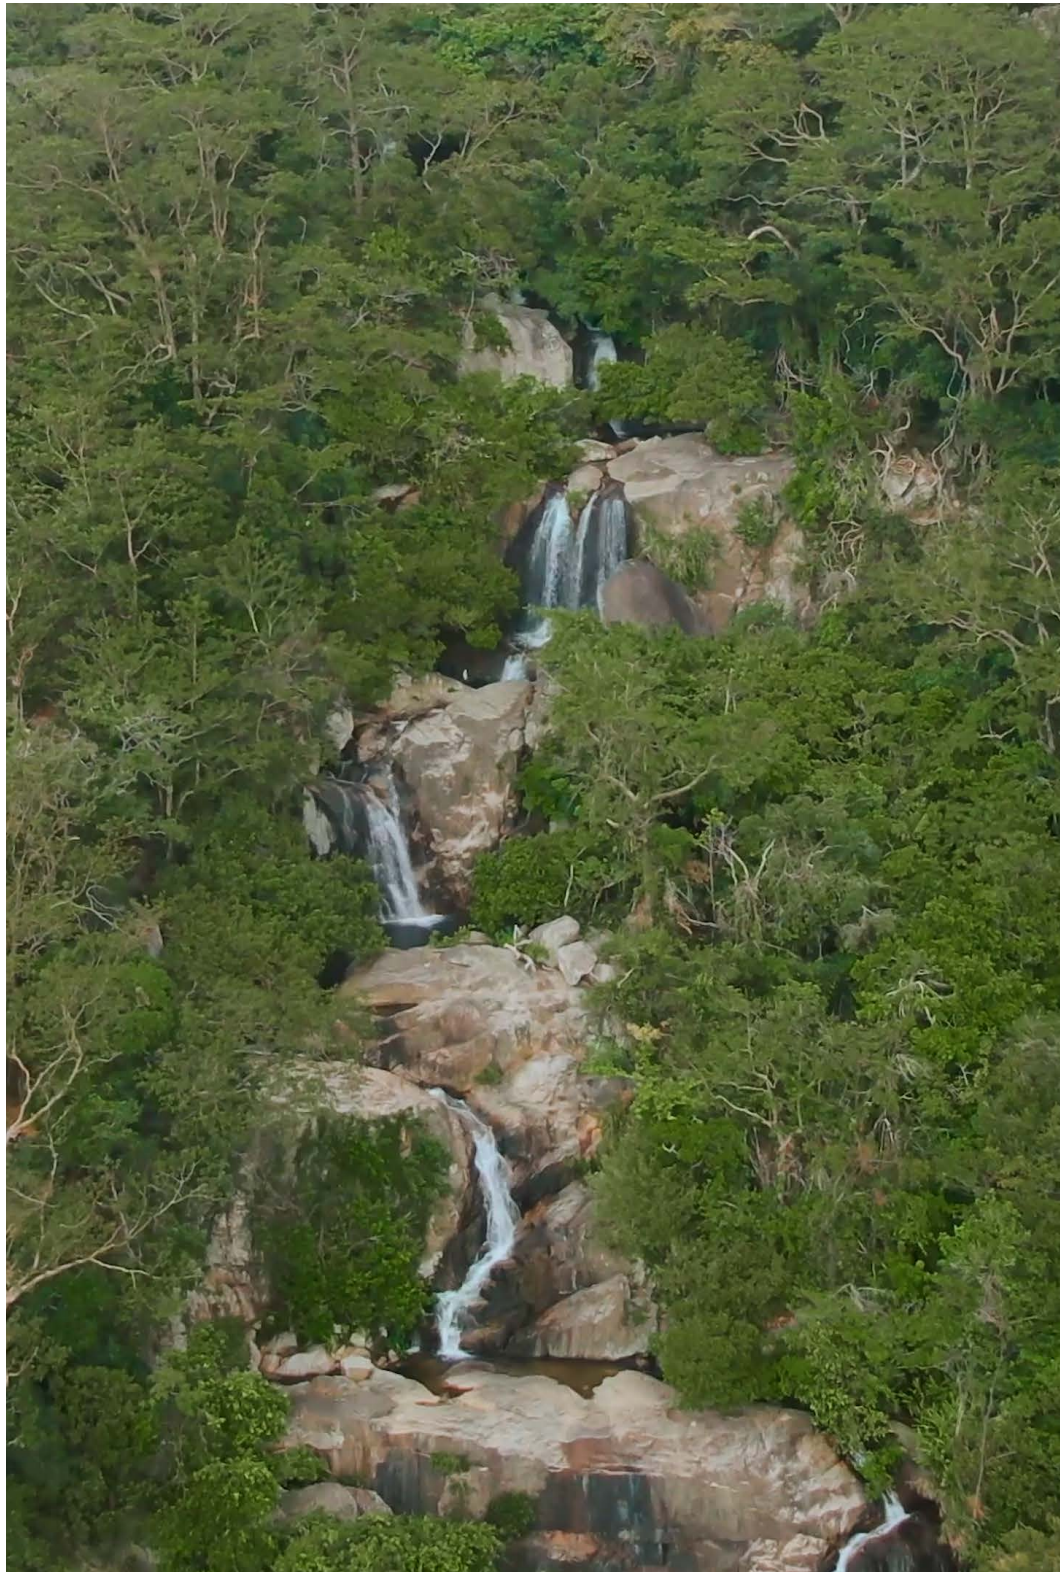

A 20-minute drive from Amanoi brings you to Bai Da (Rock Park). Vacating your vehicle, a gentle walk leads to an elevated region of incredible natural rock formations. Here, within Rock Park, you will enjoy a morning picnic prepared by Amanoi's Culinary team accompanied by expansive sea and sky views.

Following your morning repast, take a scenic downhill trek towards Bai Thit Beach, a turtle conservation area. Then, continue along the coastline, over sandy stretches and large rocks, and up a somewhat steep trail, towards Bai Da.

Cau Gay & Jungle Trek

Level two. Duration: Two and a half to four hours.
Distance: 3km.

Recommended start time: 6am.

Cau Gay and Jungle Trek immerses walkers in both nature and local life. This trek begins with a morning walk to the village of Cau Gay, home to just 34 households from the Raglai community. Dedicated to preserving their distinctive culture, as you explore the village you will encounter traditional houses made of mud and straw, a small kindergarten and primary school and locals going about their daily activities.

The journey continues through the forest, where you will learn about the matrilineal community and visit local farms with a variety of fruit trees and vegetables. Depending on the season, trekkers will have the opportunity to witness local harvesting.

Ba Tang Waterfall Trek

Level four. Approximately two and a half hours; five hours if combined with a picnic and depending on fitness level of participants.

Distance: 9km

Ba Tang, or Three-Layer Waterfall, is one of the region's hidden gems. Setting off from the nearby village of Da Hang, a 20-minute drive from Amanoï, this hike commences along the valley floor, crossing over streams to take in local farms and picturesque countryside scenery.

From here, your guide will lead you on a one-hour trek through the forest to reach Ba Tang waterfall. Exhale and cool off with a refreshing swim under billowing waters. On your descent, enjoy a unique breakfast or lunchtime picnic overlooking the rice fields.

Ho Treo – Hang Lake & Da Vach Trek

Level three. Approximately three to three and a half in total, depending on fitness level of participants. Distance: 7km.

Named by local forest rangers, the Ho Treo (Hanging Lake) trek's starting point is located a 10-minute drive away from Amanoï. Adjacent to Vinh Hy village, this small lake reveals itself after a 25-minute energetic hike through the dense forest of Núi Chua National Park. Da Vach is one of our more intensive treks, beginning at the Ho Treo and continuing up through forestland and rocky outcrops. Dramatic coastline views are just rewards for keen hikers.

Núi Chúa – King Mountain Trek

Level five+. The trek takes approximately nine hours.

This 21-kilometre hiking route is best suited to experienced hikers with a good level of fitness. Commencing at Da Hang village, the trail – encompassing lush flora and fauna and meandering streams – ascends to Núi Chúa, King Mountain, and concludes in Cau Gay village of the Raglai people. Rising to 1,039 metres, at its apex, Núi Chúa offers panoramic views of the entire region.

Reservations are required at least 72 hours in advance and are subject to a minimum 48-hour cancellation policy.

Beyond Amanoi

Nui Chua National Park & UNESCO Biosphere Reserve

Awarded National Park status in 2003, Nui Chua Reserve is situated on a wide, mountainous promontory, extending into the East Sea between Cam Ranh and Phan Rang bays. Offering diverse ecosystems, flora and fauna - including some 664 plants, 72 mammals, 181 birds and 353 species of coral, the park is home to the largest known population of black-shanked douc in Vietnam, as well as pygmy loris, the Asian black bear and the large-antlered muntjac. This display of diversity led UNESCO to recognise Nui Chua as a global biosphere reserve in September 2021.

The park is also vital for the conservation of marine biodiversity, with several shouldering beaches used as nesting grounds for small numbers of marine turtles. Additionally, the fringing coral reefs are particularly rich and support a distinctly different coral community.

Amanoi can arrange guides, picnics and transport for excursions into the park.

Cham Pottery Making Class

Approximately two hours.

The Cham people in Ninh Thuan are known for their pottery-making skills, a tradition that has been upheld for centuries. Bau Truc, a village located 10 kilometres south of Phan Rang, brings together local artisans to preserve and advance the traditional techniques passed down through generations. Every stage of creating a clay product is done by hand, with artisans moulding and shaping the pottery by revolving around it, instead of using a turntable. This results in each product having its own unique features. Pottery is baked using the heat from burnt rice husks and straw.

During pottery workshops at Amanoi, guests meet with a local artisan and learn how to make pottery the Cham way, using authentic techniques and processes. Please allow approximately three days to receive your final creation, allowing for the drying and baking of the pottery.

Fine Art Photography Exhibition

“From the moment I arrived at Amanoi I realised just how incredibly peaceful it was here. From my early morning walks to capture the sunrise to the final moments of light each day, there was something magical about the property as it is so perfectly fused with nature. I wanted the prints in the collection to allow guests to instantly transport back to their time at Amanoi and feel that peace at their home or office.”

This is how John Kincaid found the inspiration for his permanent print exhibition at Amanoi. As his first impression and the feeling throughout his stay at the property, ‘peace’ is chosen as the theme.

All prints in this collection are limited edition.
The exhibition is displayed in the Library.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

John Kincaid is a fine-art photographer specialising in landscape and underwater prints.
