

AMANGIRI

Festive Itinerary 2025

Welcome to Amangiri

Here in our beautiful corner of the Colorado Plateau, we are thrilled to be sharing the festive season with you and your loved ones, knowing you will make unforgettable memories together, whether you are staying at Amangiri resort or Camp Sarika.

This festive season is shaped by a quiet reverence for the beauty that surrounds us and the heartfelt moments spent with those we hold close. From the brilliance of Amangiri's starlit sky to the warmth of a shared meal, each day offers opportunities to reconnect with nature, with one another and with a sense of wonder. Blending cherished holiday traditions with experiences unique to our 'Peaceful Mountain', each day will be filled with outdoor adventures, cultural encounters rooted in ancient heritage and exceptional gastronomic events.

We hope that as you celebrate the year gone by and anticipate the moments to come, these activities will bring you closer to those you love.

Wishing you a joyful holiday season and a happy and healthy New Year.

IMMERSIVE EXPERIENCES

SCHEDULED DAILY

From dreamcatcher- and candle-making workshops to wildlife presentations, performances of the Native American hoop dance and guided stargazing, every day offers new experiences.

Hands-On Workshops

Learn the art of Native American weaving with Pearl Seaton, creating an authentic Navajo dreamcatcher. Or create memories of the Southwest through its fragrances by making your own candle.

Wildlife Presentation

Resident animal enthusiast, Nancy Moore, introduces the region's most interesting creatures, from snakes and lizards to scorpions and tarantulas.

Native American Hoop Dancing

Born and raised on the Navajo Nation, Tomas Hunt brings the dazzling energy of traditional hoop dancing and insight on Navajo culture to Amangiri.

Stargazing

Embark on a tour of the night sky with astronomy enthusiast, Rich Csenge, using an impressive Orion telescope. Minimal light pollution makes Amangiri an ideal outpost for stargazing.
