AMANYARA

Tennis & Clubhouse

Courtside Competition & Sporting Legends

The Clubhouse at Amanyara offers an ideal setting for sporting enthusiasts, with facilities for basketball, volleyball, bocce, shuffleboard, billiards and football. The racquet programme welcomes fans with four floodlit clay Har-Tru tennis courts and a pickleball court available for day and nighttime matches. The professional tennis team can arrange for court time and welcomes guests to hone their skills in clinics or by arranging private lessons. Tennis balls, racquets and shoes are available on a complimentary basis. The Clubhouse also features indoor and outdoor lounge spaces and a championship-ready tennis boutique featuring activewear and racquet-stringing.

To celebrate its 15th Anniversary year in 2021, Amanyara launched its Legends Programme with a series of varied fitness and wellness clinics throughout the year, hosted by sporting icons. Making use of its unrivalled spaces, the programme invites guests to improve their sporting skills through clinics with award-winning professional athletes from across the globe. Past hosts have included tennis great Maria Sharapova, surf champion Candice Appleby and NFL player Demarcus Lawrence.

Tennis Professionals

Nino Portales

Head Tennis Pro & Sports Operations Supervisor

Nino Portales, a former ATP player with a world ranking of 1200 and a consistent top 100 position in France, transitioned from an accomplished professional tennis career to luxury hospitality in 2019. Having successfully coached at Amanpuri and Amanzoe, he now serves as Head Tennis Pro & Sports Operations Supervisor at Amanyara. A USPTR certified level professional, Nino's notable loyalty to the Aman brand marks his third engagement within this prestigious portfolio, highlighting his commitment to delivering exceptional guest experiences.

Anthony Yee
