

Amanemu

50

Set in Ise Shima National Park, overlooking Ago Bay, Amanemu embraces the ancient Japanese tradition of onsen (mineral hot springs). Each of its 24 Suites features a private plunge-bath supplied with nutrient-rich spring water, while the Aman Spa offers an outdoor bathing pool and private onsen fed by a thermal spring. There are also six two-bedroom Villas.

80

Amanemu celebrates the legendary hospitality of Japan's ryokan inns and the healing waters of its hot springs. Set in Ise Shima National Park overlooking Ago Bay, the resort is close to Japan's most sacred Shinto shrines and forested pilgrimage routes. Amanemu's 24 Suites and six two-bedroom Villas feature expansive decks and private plunge-baths supplied with nutrient-rich spring water, while the 2,000-square-metre Aman Spa features multiple onsen pavilions, a gym, yoga pavilion and Pilates studio. The resort's fine-dining restaurants serve exquisite Japanese and international cuisines.

100

Amanemu (peaceful joy) celebrates the legendary hospitality of Japan's ryokan inns and the healing waters of its hot springs in magnificent natural surrounds. Set in Ise Shima National Park overlooking Ago Bay, the resort is close to Japan's most sacred Shinto shrines and ancient pilgrimage routes wind through nearby forests. Amanemu's 24 Suites and six two-bedroom Villas feature expansive decks and private plunge-baths supplied with nutrient-rich spring water, while the 2,000-square-metre Aman Spa features multiple onsen pavilions, a gym, yoga pavilion and Pilates studio. The resort's fine-dining restaurants embrace the area's gourmet heritage as the breadbasket of the ancient Imperial Court, serving exquisite Japanese and international cuisines.

300

Set in Ise Shima National Park, Amanemu (peaceful joy) is perched on the shores of Ago Bay, a blue expanse dotted with islets and drifting oyster rafts. Lying south of Tokyo, two hours by train from Nagoya or 25 minutes by private helicopter, the resort provides easy access to Japan's most sacred Shinto shrines and ancient pilgrimage routes winding through nearby forests.

Celebrating the tradition of onsen (bathing in mineral hot springs), Amanemu's 2,000-square-metre Aman Spa is an integral part of the resort. Offering an enriching guest experience centred on holistic wellbeing, it has its own thermal spring feeding two outdoor pools – each a different temperature – and two exclusive onsen pavilions. The spa also offers four treatment rooms, a gym, yoga pavilion, Pilates studio and a pool for aquatic body work.

The benefits of onsen can also be enjoyed in Amanemu's 24 Suites and six two-bedroom Villas. Each features a private plunge-bath supplied with water drawn from the same natural hot springs as the Aman Spa.

Identical in layout and design, Amanemu's 99-square-metre Suites present combined bedroom and living areas and expansive decks. Suites are divided into three different categories depending on their outlooks: Mori Suites are surrounded by indigenous vegetation with tranquil green views; Sora Suites are situated closer to the coast with peaceful green views towards Ago Bay; closest to the shore, Nagi Suites offer the best views of Ago Bay. The six two-bedroom Villas offer expansive living and dining areas, and four include a large onsen room. The two Tsuki Villas have their own private gardens and separate pavilions housing private onsen facilities, with hot spring-fed baths both indoors and out.

The resort's fine-dining Restaurant and Lounge Bar embrace the area's gourmet heritage, serving exquisite Japanese and international cuisines. Other facilities include a serene library.

500

Set in Ise Shima National Park, Amanemu (peaceful joy) is perched on the shores of Ago Bay, a blue expanse known as the Bay of Pearls dotted with islets and drifting oyster rafts. The ancient Kumano Kodō pilgrimage routes wind through forests nearby, and Japan's most sacred Shinto shrines are within easy reach.

Lying south of Tokyo on 341 acres, two hours by train from Nagoya or 25 minutes by private helicopter, Amanemu embraces a classic Japanese aesthetic in line with traditional ryokan inns. An exclusive sanctuary at one with nature, the resort's proximity to the revered 2,000-year-old Shinto shrine of Ise Jingū inspired much of its design and peaceful ambience.

Celebrating the tradition of onsen (bathing in mineral hot springs), Amanemu's 2,000-square-metre Aman Spa is an integral part of the resort. Offering an enriching guest experience centred on holistic wellbeing, it has its own thermal spring feeding two outdoor pools – each a different temperature – and two exclusive onsen pavilions. The spa also offers four treatment rooms, hydrotherapy suites, a gym, yoga pavilion, Pilates studio and a pool for aquatic body work.

The benefits of onsen can also be enjoyed in each of Amanemu's 24 Suites and six two-bedroom Villas. All feature a private plunge-bath supplied with water from the same natural hot springs as the Aman Spa.

Identical in layout and design, Amanemu's 99-square-metre Suites present combined bedroom and living areas with woven textile shutters opening to embrace the outdoors. Expansive decks offer outdoor living areas and beautiful views. Suites are divided into three different categories depending on their outlooks: Mori Suites are surrounded by indigenous vegetation with tranquil green views; Sora Suites are situated closer to the coast with peaceful green views towards Ago Bay; closest to the shore, Nagi Suites boast premium views of Ago Bay.

The six two-bedroom Villas offer expansive living and dining areas and private onsen facilities. The Mori Villa, two Sora Villas and Nagi Villa each boast a large onsen room and offer similar views to Suites of the same name. The two Tsuki Villas have their own private gardens and separate pavilions housing private onsen facilities, with hot spring-fed baths both indoors and out.

Situated in a region renowned for its gourmet heritage, from outstanding seafood to the renowned Matsusaka beef, Amanemu presents a fine-dining Restaurant and Bar Lounge celebrating this local abundance. The area was once known as Miketsukuni (Land of Imperial provisions) when it served as the breadbasket of the ancient Imperial Court. Other facilities include a serene library and a boutique.

Guests can enjoy bespoke Aman Journeys seeking out the cultural nuances and finest experiences of the region. Day trips hiking the Kumano Kodō trails, boat trips on Ago Bay, private meals with Ama – the legendary female pearl divers and lessons in Japanese arts from calligraphy to Ikebana flower arranging can easily be arranged.