The resort presents eight Suites at Villa Miločer and 51 Village Rooms, Cottages and Suites on the island. Views are of the sea, rooftops or quaint courtyards, depending on location.

Aman Sveti Stefan incorporates two kilometres of Adriatic coastline including the pink sandy beaches of Sveti Stefan, Miločer Beach and the renowned Queen's Beach. Set back from Queen's Beach is the resort's standalone Aman Spa, which offers four treatment suites, relaxation areas and hydrotherapy rooms, as well as a 32-metre swimming pool, a Pilates studio, yoga studio and comprehensive gym. There is also a small gym on the island, along with six spa cottages and two additional swimming pools.

At Villa Miločer, Loggia is open for breakfast, lunch and dinner year-round, offering a simple, elegant menu and exquisite views of the bay. Also on the mainland near the Aman Spa is Queen's Beach Grill, open seasonally for lunch. The island of Sveti Stefan itself provides a number of unique dining venues open seasonally. These include the atmospheric Piazza with its taverna, enoteca and antipasti bar; Arva, Aman's signature Italian restaurant open for dinner; and the Rakija Bar, Cliff Pool Bar and Signature Pool Bar.

Aman Sveti Stefan provides guests with personalised guided excursions to natural and cultural attractions in the area. These include boating on the Adriatic, visiting the old town of Budva and the baroque city of Perast, discovering peaceful Skadar Lake and exploring the Bay of Kotor, a Unesco World Heritage Site.

The resort presents eight Suites at Villa Miločer and 51 Village Rooms, Cottages and Suites on the island, including the Sveti Stefan Suite, which has its own private swimming pool. Views are of the sea, rooftops or quaint courtyards and piazzas, depending on location. Every Room, Cottage and Suite on the island is completely unique, as one would expect from a destination with such an ancient and organic heritage.

Aman Sveti Stefan incorporates two kilometres of Adriatic coastline including the pink sandy beaches of Sveti Stefan, Miločer Beach and the renowned Queen's Beach. Set back from Queen's Beach is the resort's standalone Aman Spa, surrounded by gardens and overlooking the sea. It offers four treatment suites, relaxation rooms, relaxation terraces and hydrotherapy rooms with saunas, cold plunge pools and steam showers, as well as extensive fitness facilities.

Aman Spa's 24-metre indoor heated swimming pool extends outdoors for an additional eight metres, while the spa's Fitness Centre includes a Pilates studio, a yoga studio and a comprehensive 140-square-metre gym. There is also a small gym on the island, along with six spa cottages.

In addition to Aman Spa's swimming pool on the mainland, Aman Sveti Stefan offers two swimming pools on the island. The resort's main lap pool is located on the lower terrace on the west side of the island, while the second is set on a cliff overlooking the Adriatic Sea. Both are surrounded by sun loungers and offer casual dining throughout the day.
