AMANYARA LEGENDS PROGRAM

Basketball Clinics with Brian Scalabrine

In 2021, Amanyara launched the Amayara Legends program to celebrate its 15th anniversary. Over the course of the past two years, several sporting icons have visited the resort, hosting a series of clinics and sharing their sporting skills with guests. Following on from the success of a two visit from basketball great Kevin Love, this March we will see the return of a past NBA Champion, Brian Scalabrine.

Nicknamed the White Mamba, Brian is a former American professional basketball player. He was drafted in 2001 by the the New Jersey Nets and made consecutive NBA Finals his first two years. In 2005, he signed with the Boston Celtics and won a championship with the team in 2008. He also played for the Bulls and joined the coaching team for the Golden State Warriors. Today he works as television analyst for the Boston Celtics and as co-host of The Starting Lineup on SiriusXM NBA Radio. He will be in residence at Amanyara for three days and will host a series of one-hour clinics and a cocktail reception the final evening.
