

AMANYARA

Resident Chef Jet Tila

From 30 June – 02 July 2023

To celebrate this year's July 4th weekend, Amanyara will welcome internationally renowned chef, restauranter and best-selling author, Jet Tila, to showcase his exceptional Thai cuisine. From battling the legendary Masaharu Morimoto on cooking show, Iron Chef America, to opening the Encore Hotel in Las Vegas and his own restaurants The Charleston and Pakpao in Los Angeles, Chef Jet Tila is a born educator and storyteller. Jet was appointed as the inaugural Culinary Ambassador of Thai Cuisine by the Royal Thai Consulate, the first-ever chef to represent his country's culture and cuisine.

During his three-day residence, Chef Tila will take guests on a culinary journey, creating bespoke menus and dining experiences that bringing the flavours, textures and traditions of Thailand to Providenciales Island, using the finest seasonal ingredients. Guests visiting from 30 June to 2 July will have the opportunity to indulge in Chef Tila's unique interpretations of Thai classics in various settings across the resort - from Thai street food and cocktails served in the bar at sundown, to a family-style dinner and interactive cooking class at the Beach Club.
