Accommodation

Housed in an elegant 19th-century building, Amantaka's suites vary in size from 70 to 120 square metres, and many with private pools. There are eight Suites, four Pool Suites, eight Khan Suites, two Mekong Suites and two Amantaka Suites, all with spacious indoor and outdoor living areas.

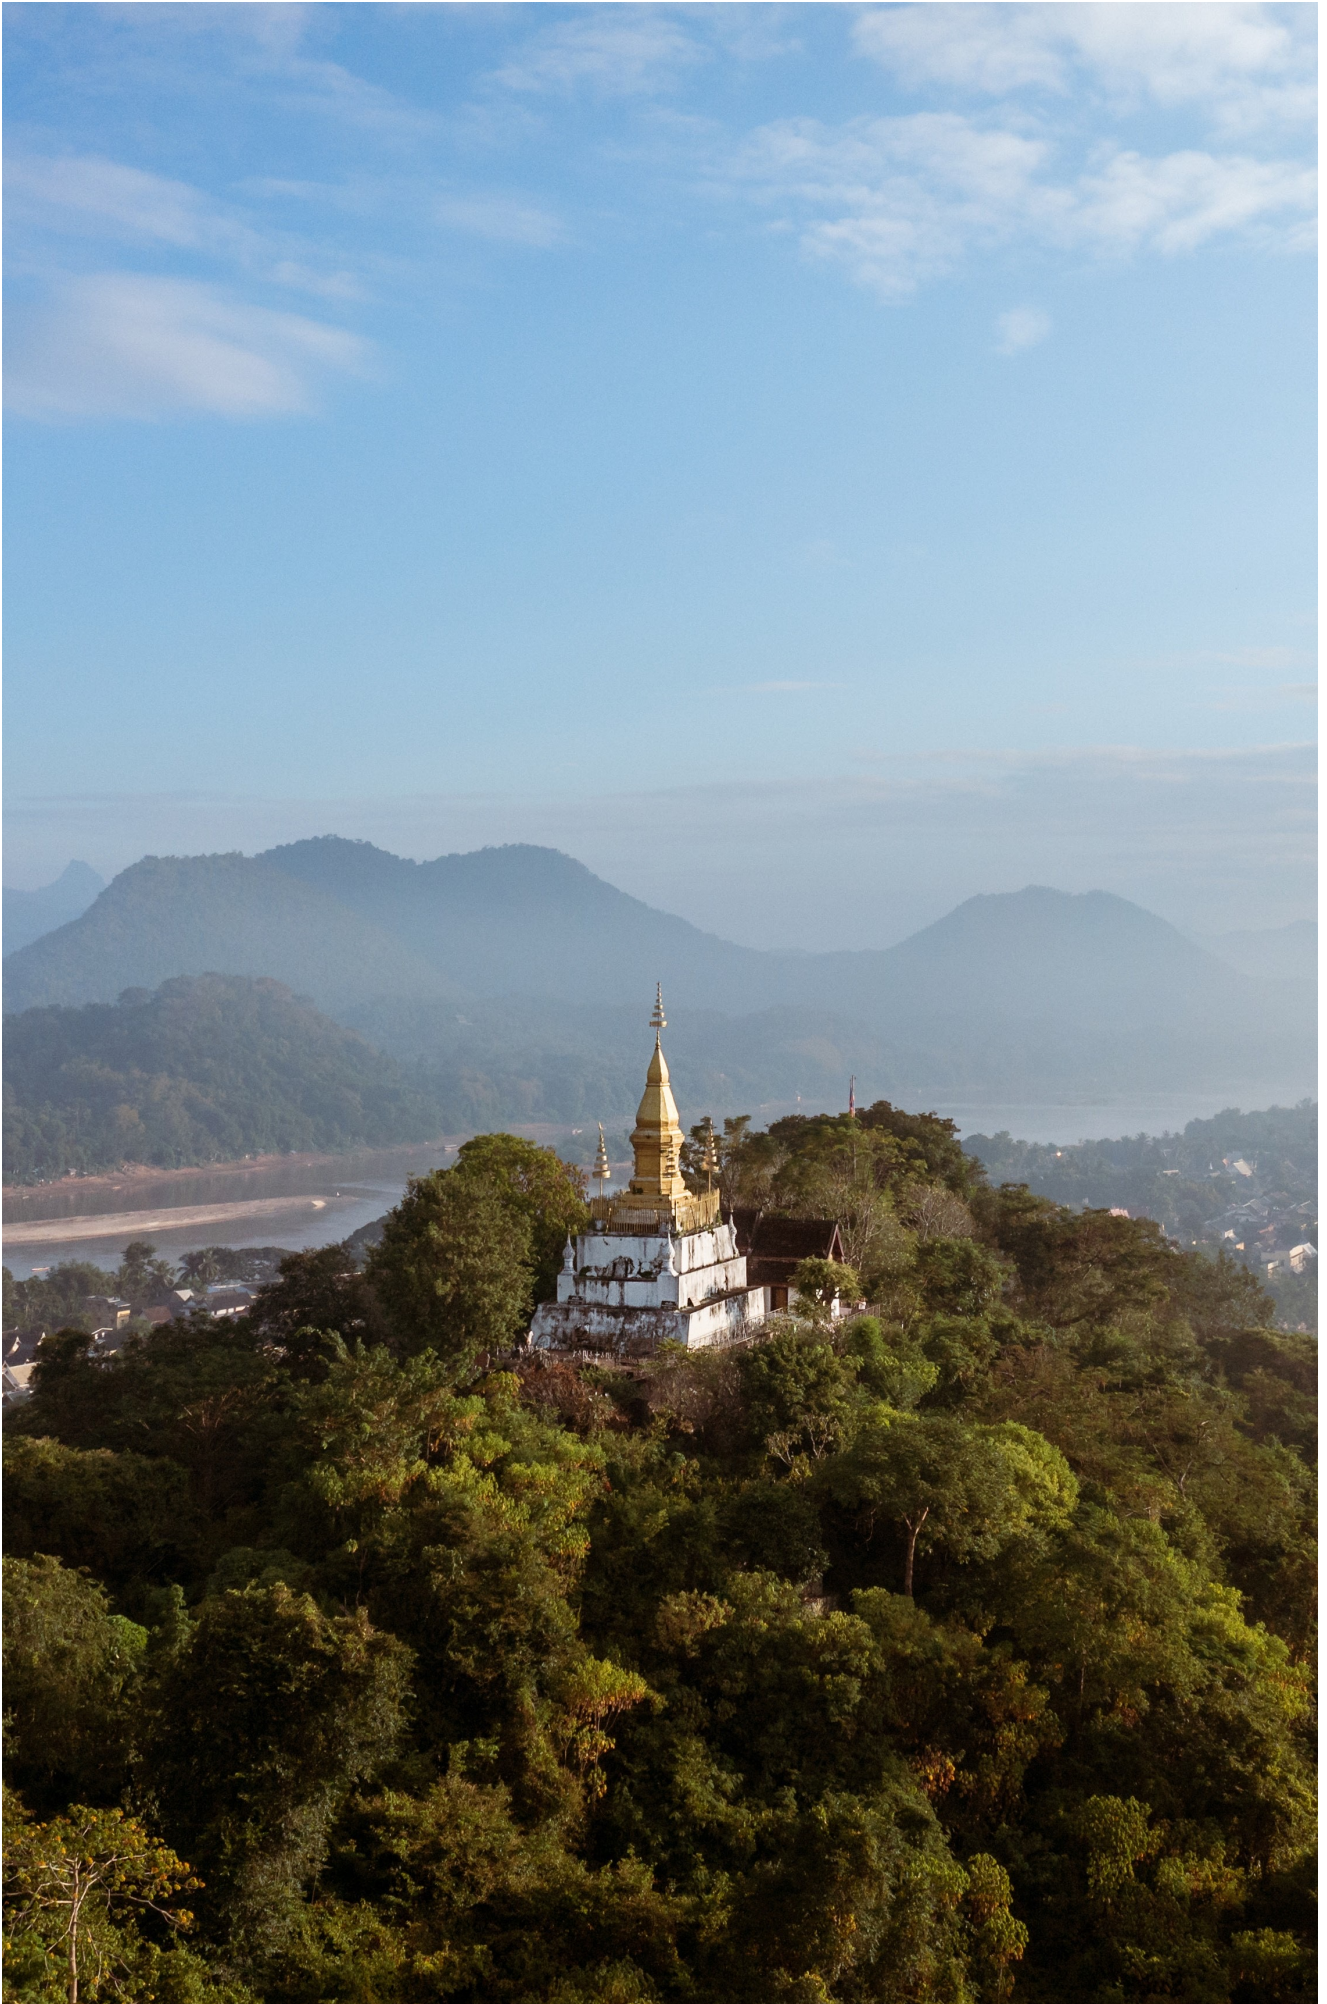

Entered through louvered doors, suites offer light-filled living and sleeping areas, their lofty ceilings sheltering a central king-size bed. Bathrooms feature twin vanities, dressing areas, showers, toilets and separate island bathtubs. Each suite's living space and bedroom opens onto an outdoor area shaded by indigenous trees, leading in selected suites to a private pool. The two standalone Amantaka Suites are surrounded by airy verandas and offer generous living rooms and spacious outdoor areas, including a garden, a private relaxation sala and a large pool.

Relaxation & Wellness

Dedicated to holistic wellness, the Aman Spa offers guests an exceptional personalised experience. Four spacious double treatment rooms each feature a dressing area, treatment area, private Jacuzzi and individual relaxation room. Hydrotherapy facilities are also available. An indulgent treatment menu of massages, facials, wraps and scrubs incorporates traditional Southeast Asian techniques, ingredients infused with local herbs, and Aman's signature organic skincare products.

Amantaka's fitness facility houses a gym and a yoga studio, and a private tennis court is situated a short distance from the property.

Adventures & Excursions

Amantaka is committed to creating personalised experiences that allow our guests to embark on their own unique journey of discovery. Our aim is to help guests establish a genuine and meaningful connection with the cultural heritage, natural wonders, and contemporary attractions of Luang Prabang.

With 32 temples and 111 historic Lao-French buildings, Luang Prabang is among the most well-preserved traditional towns in Southeast Asia. The town's charm lies in its well-preserved traditional character, which is carefully maintained through limited new construction and thoughtful development.

By virtue of its proximity to the town, Amantaka provides guests the opportunity to easily explore on foot or by bicycle, with our trained guide available to point out notable architectural landmarks and other distinctive attractions in town.

A personalised itinerary will be provided to embrace each guest's individual passions and interests, ensuring that they make the most of their stay in Luang Prabang. Our team is available to assist with activities and experiences, from traditional Laotian cooking classes on our organic farm to tours of sacred temples and a sunset cruise on the majestic Mekong.

Reviving Lao Buddhism

Lao Buddhism is a unique form of Theravada Buddhism that places great emphasis on monkhood. In the historic centre of Luang Prabang, the religion is experiencing a remarkable revival with over 1,200 monks whose golden spires tower into the sky.

At sunrise, observe Tak Bat as monks and novices stroll through the streets to receive alms. Afterward, take a floral offering of your own creation to a nearby temple for a private tour or meditation session. In the afternoon, partake in a private Buddhist learning session and meditation led by a Buddhist monk at the resort's Buddhist Learning Centre. In the evening, experience the monk blessing at Wat That Luang, where a jasmine water blessing can be received to invite positive energy and good fortune into life.

Cruising the Serene Mekong

Discover the majesty of the Mekong River, one of Southeast Asia's most significant waterways, with Amantaka's private boat tours. As the river winds its way from the Tibetan Plateau through Laos and towards the South China Sea, explore its meandering bends and serene banks.

Cruise to the Pak Ou Caves and marvel at the thousands of Buddha images that housed within the limestone cliffs, or venture upstream to find the perfect spot for a riverside picnic.

As the sun begins to set over the forested mountains, sit back and enjoy cocktails and canapés while taking in the breathtaking views and witnessing the town's evening rituals from the tranquil waters of the Mekong.

With Amantaka's private boat tours, unforgettable memories and a wonderful experience of the wonders of the Mekong River can be created in style and comfort.

Venturing into the Wild

Nestled in the midst of nature, Luang Prabang offers an array of exciting excursions to indulge in. Embark on a journey to Kuang Si or Tad Sae waterfalls and be mesmerised by the cascading waters surrounded by lush greenery. Get up close and personal with majestic elephants at Manda Lao Elephant Sanctuary or visit the Bear Sanctuary at the Rescue Centre and learn about their rehabilitation process.

For a unique and immersive experience, visit the resort's organic farm, where you can participate in a rice planting or harvesting activity and gain insights into the local farming culture. Take part in a cooking class and learn to prepare traditional Lao dishes using fresh organic produce, while enjoying the scenic views of rice fields and forest against the stunning backdrop of distant mountains.

Bespoke Services

At Amantaka, we understand that certain aspects of celebration require specialist services, which is why we work with trusted professionals who are known for their expertise. Our preferred photographers and videographers are some of the best in their fields, while our recommended florists will design floral decorations in line with individual tastes, from bouquets and buttonholes to table centrepieces and stands.

Music and entertainment play a crucial role in any event, and we take great care in curating them to contribute to the uniqueness of your celebration. Amantaka is very much part of its cultural setting and can arrange local musicians to perform traditional music. Traditional dance performances or cultural demonstrations can also be arranged. For those who prefer classical and contemporary options, we have a selection of recommended string quartets, soloists, bands, and DJs available to create the perfect ambiance for your special occasion.
