Occupying the top six floors of the Otemachi Tower, Aman Tokyo is located just steps from Tokyo Station and the boutiques of Ginza. High above the capital, it offers breathtaking views harmonising city and nature, with the Imperial Palace Gardens and Shinjuku skyscrapers in the foreground, and Mount Fuji on the horizon. The hotel provides easy access to all points of interest in the city, as the five-line Otemachi subway station is connected to the building.

An exclusive sanctuary, Aman Tokyo embraces its namesake's cosmopolitan nature while staying true to a classical Japanese aesthetic; wood, stone and washi paper are used to both subtle and dramatic effect. The hotel's inner garden on the reception level is surrounded by an engawa, an inner veranda leading to extensive dining and lounge areas. On the five floors above are the serene Aman Spa, a 30-metre swimming pool and 84 suites – each with a unique layout and panoramic views.

Located adjacent to the inner garden with stunning floor-to-ceiling views, the Lounge by Aman is an ideal venue for afternoon tea, drinks, snacks, and cocktails. Offering similar views, Arva serves farm-fresh seasonal Japanese and Italian dishes. It also houses a 1,200-bottle, walk-in wine cellar. Overlooking Arva are two private dining rooms, also with striking city views. Musashi by Aman serves authentic Edomae-style sushi at a Hinoki counter seating just eight – a fine dining experience representing the very best of Japanese omakase cuisine. Enjoying an indoor and outdoor setting with beautiful green views of the 3,600-square-metre Otemachi Forest, the Café by Aman offers dessert sets, soft drinks and champagne.

Aman Tokyo's wellness facilities cover almost 2,500 square metres across two floors, and include Aman Spa with eight treatment rooms, a gym, a yoga/Pilates studio and a 30-metre, temperature-controlled swimming pool with expansive city views. Changing rooms feature steam rooms, showers and a traditional Japanese bath.

Aman's first urban retreat, Aman Tokyo soars above the atmospheric whirl of tradition and modernity that is Japan's capital city. Steps from Tokyo Station and the world-famous boutiques of Ginza, the hotel occupies the top six floors of the Otemachi Tower in the prestigious financial district. From here, guests can enjoy breathtaking views harmonising city and nature, with the Imperial Palace Gardens and Shinjuku skyscrapers in the foreground and Mount Fuji on the horizon. The hotel provides easy access to all points of interest, as the five-line Otemachi subway station is connected to the building.

An exclusive sanctuary above the skyline, Aman Tokyo embraces its namesake's cosmopolitan nature while staying true to a classical Japanese aesthetic. Wood, stone and washi paper are used to both subtle and dramatic effect, creating a gentle interplay of light and shadow. The hotel's inner garden on the reception level is surrounded by an engawa, an inner veranda leading to extensive dining and lounge areas, as well as a boutique and meeting rooms. Aman Tokyo's guestrooms and suites, serene Aman Spa and 30-metre swimming pool are situated on the five floors above.

Designed with business and leisure travellers in mind, Aman Tokyo offers accommodation in 84 suites and Signature Suites – elevated urban sanctuaries which draw design inspiration from traditional Japanese residences. Perched high above the bustling city below, they blend wood, washi paper and granite with modern technology and sumptuous fabrics for an unparalleled stay. Each offers dynamic views of the city, some offering incredible vistas over the Imperial Palace Gardens with magnificent Mount Fuji appearing on the horizon.

Adjacent to the inner garden with similar floor-to-ceiling views, the Lounge by Aman is an ideal venue for afternoon tea, drinks, snacks and cocktails. With the same outlook, Arva serves bold and heartwarming Italian dishes featuring farm-fresh seasonal Japanese ingredients. It also houses a 2,000-bottle, walk-in wine cellar with exclusive, handpicked wines from around the world. A Cigar Lounge has a built-in humidor, and two private dining rooms overlook Arva, also with striking city views. Musashi by Aman serves authentic Edomae-style sushi at a Hinoki counter seating just eight – a fine dining experience representing the very best of Japanese omakase cuisine. Enjoying an indoor and outdoor setting with beautiful green views of the 3,600-square-metre Otemachi Forest, the Café by Aman offers dessert sets, soft drinks and champagne. Guests can also enjoy in-suite dining 24 hours a day from an extensive menu of Japanese and international dishes.

Aman Tokyo's wellness facilities cover almost 2,500 square metres across two floors, and include Aman Spa with eight treatment rooms, a gym, a yoga/Pilates studio and a 30-metre, temperature-controlled swimming pool with expansive city views. Changing rooms feature steam rooms, showers and a traditional Japanese bath.

Aside from the resort's superb facilities, Aman Tokyo offers guests insight into, and ease of access to, the city's many attractions.
