

amanoi

Fact Sheet

Separated from the world by miles of pristine national park, Amanoi overlooks the protected waters of Vinh Hy Bay, on Vietnam's 'secret' southeastern shores. Meaning 'place of peace', the off-the-grid property designed by Jean-Michel Gathy positively encourages calm contemplation, whether lounging by the cliffside pool or at the elegant beach club, or surrendering to the tranquillity of the Aman Spa – set by a lotus-filled lake with a floating yoga pavilion.

Location

- Amanoi lies on a wide, mountainous promontory of Núi Chúa National Park, at the core part of the UNESCO biosphere reserve, in Ninh Thuan province
- The property overlooks Vinh Hy Bay, part of a marine reserve surrounded by unique rock formations

Getting There

- Amanoi is a 75 minute drive from Cam Ranh international airport
- By air, Cam Ranh is 65 minutes from Ho Chi Minh City, 105 minutes from Hanoi, or 75 minutes from Danang

Accommodation

Combining traditional Vietnamese influences with natural materials, Amanoi's Villas meld imperceptibly with the dramatic topography of the landscape. Pavilions and Villas feature elegant open-plan layouts leading to outdoor decks, while Residences in a range of sizes offer consummate privacy for couples, families or groups.
