

A photograph of a modern building with classical architectural elements, including several tall, white columns supporting a flat roof. The building is constructed from light-colored stone or concrete blocks. In the foreground, there is a swimming pool with clear, light blue water and several large, light-colored rocks. The background shows a clear blue sky, some greenery, and distant mountains.

Activities & Excursions

Archaeological sites

- 50 minute drive from the ancient city of Epidaurus, a Unesco World Heritage Site, with a theatre still used for performances every summer
- 1.5 hours' drive from the Unesco-protected archaeological site of Mycenae, prehistoric kingdom of the mythical Agamemnon

Nafplio

- An hours drive from Amanzoe, the seaport town of Nafplio was modern Greece's first capital

Monastries

- The abandoned Byzantine monastery of St Dimitrios is built into the rock-face on the lower slopes of Mount Avgo, near Pelei, around 30 minutes' drive from Amanzoe
- Also nearby, St George at Didima – a small but imposing church with lovely views – is signposted by meteorite holes in the road

Culinary Discovery

- Sample the region's famous citrus fruits, sweet olives, diverse seafood and wine
- Visit a local beekeeper and honey museum
- Learn about Greek wine with an Amanzoe tasting session, or at a local vineyard

Island Hopping

- Charter one of Amanzoe's high-speed watercrafts for a full- or half-day tour of the uninhabited isles and secluded coves off the coast of the Peloponnese peninsula
- Take a trip to the pretty island of Spetses, known for its seafaring traditions and Venetian and neoclassical architecture
- Visit Hydra, a car-free island famed for its vibrant dining and nightlife scene

Trekking

- The Peloponnese landscape is a delight to explore on foot. Highlights include the paleolithic Franchthi cave, reached by a coastal hike (about 15 minutes long) 20 minutes' drive from Amanzoe
- Lighter treks include visits to the Bisti forest (20 minutes' drive away)
- Other options include a 2.5-hour trek from the mountain village of Iliokastro through pine forest to Fourni village, and a light circular trek from Fourni to Katafiki Gorge.
