Activities & Excursions

The local sites and activities mentioned below are just a few of the area's many attractions, all easily accessible from Amanjena.

Medina

This 'fully preserved historic town', as UNESCO has called it, is a World Heritage Site. It presents a captivating world of winding lanes, fondouks (inns), hammams (steam baths) and souks (shops) of every kind.

Place Djemaa el-Fna

One of the busiest squares in Africa bustles with vendors, dancers, acrobats and musicians by day, and transforms into an open-air restaurant at night.

Palaces

The 12th-century El Makhzen is the formal royal palace, while the ruins of the 16th-century El Badi Palace host the annual National Festival of Popular Arts. The 19th-century Dar Si Said is now home to the Museum of Moroccan Arts.

High Atlas Mountains

A 45-minute drive from Amanjena and home to ancient mosques, kasbahs (forts) and cliffside Berber villages, the foothills are ideal for hiking and picnicking.

Gardens

Majorelle Gardens - with its electric-blue walls, Majorelle Gardens are the home of the Yves-Saint Laurent Museum which houses an important collection of clothing, haute couture accessories, as well as sketches and assorted objects.

The Secret Garden - most popularly known as Riad Loukrissi. It comprises of two large gardens and one of the highest towers of the Medina. The museum provides you with a wealth of historical information about Marrakech's architecture and gardens.

Anima Garden - set against the backdrop of the Atlas Mountains, Anima is a magical botanical experience. Wander down paths lined with African plants, trees, flowers and shrubbery, vivid with colours and rich scent, coming across sculptures and pavillions along the way.

Agafay Desert

From local camel rides, to exhilarating journeys via quadbike or E-bike, or learning more about the stars, with a special stargazing experience, embark on a unique journey in one of Morocco's most mesmerizing locations.

Home-cooked meal at a Berber house

A ritual at the heart of Morocco's rich hospitality tradition, Aman guests are invited to join a Berber family for a home-cooked meal in their mud-walled home, and on Wednesdays, explore the markets of the village.

Hot Air Balloon Experience

Embark on the airborne adventure of a lifetime and discover all the beauty of Marrakech's landscapes while gracefully cruising through the skies by hot air balloon.
