Welcome to Amanyara

Amanyara's 800-metre sweep of brilliant white sand is lapped by the turquoise waters of Northwest Point Marine National Park and bounded by a nature reserve.

The resort's 38 free-standing Guest Pavilions and 19 expansive Villas are set atop rocky bluffs and secret coves, alongside tranquil lakes or just steps from the beach, while the dramatic Welcome Pavilion, the Restaurant, Bar and main swimming pool are perched on the coastline with inspiring ocean views.

Contemporary in layout and design, Amanyara is situated just 25 minutes' drive from the international airport on Providenciales, yet feels a world away from anywhere.

For a wedding or any other occasion, this remote yet accessible retreat combines Aman's legendary hospitality with the captivating rhythm of island life, where multi-generations are invited to gather and celebrate without interruption.

Getting There

Turks & Caicos comprises eight islands and 40 small cays, 923 kilometres (575 miles) southeast of Miami and 160 kilometres (100 miles) north of the Dominican Republic. The archipelago's international airport lies on the island of Providenciales, just 25 minutes by car from Amanyara. There are direct flights between Providenciales and US cities including Atlanta, Philadelphia, Boston, Miami, Charlotte, Dallas, New York and New Jersey, and Toronto in Canada.
