The resort presents eight Suites at Villa Miločer and 50 Village Rooms, Cottages and Suites on the island. Views are of the sea, rooftops or quaint courtyards, depending on location.

Aman Sveti Stefan incorporates two kilometres of Adriatic coastline including the pink sandy beaches of Sveti Stefan, Miločer Beach and the renowned Queen's Beach. Set back from Queen's Beach is the resort's standalone Aman Spa, which offers four treatment suites, relaxation areas and hydrotherapy rooms, as well as a 32-metre swimming pool, a Pilates studio, yoga studio and comprehensive gym. There is also a small gym on the island, along with six spa cottages and two additional swimming pools.

At Villa Miločer, the Dining Room, loggia terrace and living room feature simple, elegant menus driven by fresh produce. Also on the mainland is the Beach Café, offering alfresco dining in a secluded location. The island of Sveti Stefan itself provides a taverna, an enoteca and an antipasti bar in a uniquely atmospheric setting – the Piazza. Also located on the island are: Aman Signature Restaurant, serving Montenegrin and international cuisines throughout the day; Rakija Bar; the Upper Terrace with its superb views; the Sun Terrace; and the Cliff Pool Terrace.

Aman Sveti Stefan provides guests with personalised guided excursions to natural and cultural attractions in the area. These include boating on the Adriatic, visiting the old town of Budva and the baroque city of Perast, discovering peaceful Skadar Lake and exploring the Bay of Kotor, a Unesco World Heritage Site.

Today, the island's cluster of sturdy stone buildings, together with Villa Miločer, a graceful stone residence across the bay, comprises the idyllic beachside resort of Aman Sveti Stefan.

The resort presents eight Suites at Villa Miločer and 50 Village Rooms, Cottages and Suites on the island, including the Sveti Stefan Suite, which has its own private swimming pool. Views are of the sea, rooftops or quaint courtyards and piazzas, depending on location. Every room, cottage and suite on the island is completely unique, as one would expect from a destination of centuries-old heritage.

Aman Sveti Stefan incorporates two kilometres of Adriatic coastline including the pink sandy beaches of Sveti Stefan, Miločer Beach and the renowned Queen's Beach. Set back from Queen's Beach is the resort's standalone Aman Spa, surrounded by gardens and overlooking the sea. It offers four treatment suites, relaxation rooms, relaxation terraces and hydrotherapy rooms with saunas, cold plunge pools and steam showers, as well as extensive fitness facilities.

Aman Spa's 24-metre indoor heated swimming pool extends outdoors for an additional eight metres, while the spa's Fitness Centre includes a Pilates studio, a yoga studio and a comprehensive 140-square-metre gym. There is also a small gym on the island, along with six spa cottages.

In addition to Aman Spa's swimming pool on the mainland, Aman Sveti Stefan offers two swimming pools on the island. The resort's main lap pool is located on the lower terrace on the west side of the island, while the second is set on a cliff overlooking the Adriatic Sea. Both are surrounded by sun loungers and offer casual dining throughout the day.

At Villa Miločer, the Dining Room, loggia terrace and living room feature simple, elegant menus driven by fresh produce and locally-caught seafood. Also on the mainland is the Beach Café, offering casual alfresco dining in a secluded location.

The island of Sveti Stefan itself provides diverse dining options in a uniquely atmospheric setting – the Piazza. This open-air square is the heart and soul of the island, featuring a number of dining venues including a taverna, an enoteca and an antipasti bar. Also located on the island away from the vibrant bustle of the Piazza are: Aman Signature Restaurant, serving Montenegrin and international cuisines throughout the day; Rakija Bar; the Upper Terrace with its superb views; the Sun Terrace; and the Cliff Pool Terrace.

As with all Aman properties, Aman Sveti Stefan provides guests with personalised guided excursions to natural and cultural attractions in the area – both along the Montenegrin coast and into the spectacular interior of the country. These include boating on the Adriatic, visiting the old town of Budva and the beautifully preserved baroque city of Perast, discovering peaceful Skadar Lake and exploring the Bay of Kotor, a Unesco World Heritage Site. Other activities on offer include cycling, bird watching and water sports.
