

The image captures a luxurious interior, likely a lounge or living area. On the right, a large classical painting is framed in an ornate, gilded frame. The painting depicts a pastoral scene with several figures, including a woman playing a lute, a man, and a child, set against a backdrop of trees and a landscape. Above the painting, a large, intricate chandelier with multiple tiers of crystal and gold accents hangs from the ceiling. To the left of the painting, a tall, narrow mirror is set within a decorative, gilded frame. The mirror reflects a portion of the room, showing a doorway and a glimpse of another area. In the foreground, a light-colored, plush sofa is partially visible on the left. The floor is made of light-colored wood with a herringbone pattern. In the bottom right corner, a dark coffee table holds several white, modern-style bowls or containers. The overall atmosphere is one of elegance and historical grandeur.

ĀMAN
VENICE

Filled with museum-quality treasures, Aman Venice's home on the Grand Canal is the 16th-century Palazzo Papadopoli, one of the city's most significant buildings. The great 18th-century painter Tiepolo once lived here, and his frescoes adorn the walls of many of the rooms. In the 19th century, the presiding Papadopoli family turned adjoining buildings into two gardens that, today, are among the city's rarest private green spaces. When Aman Venice was renovated in 2014, its sensitive incorporation of contemporary comforts won the palazzo a heritage award for Italy's best restoration.
