

A M A N W A N A

50

Amanwana is located on the island of Moyo, a National Park east of Bali. Set on a beach overlooking the Flores Sea, the wilderness hideaway offers full-board accommodation in 17 luxury guest tents. Its own Dive Centre provides unparalleled access to some of the best scuba diving and snorkelling in Indonesia.

80

Amanwana ('peaceful forest') is located on the island of Moyo, a National Park east of Bali. Set on a beach in a secluded cove overlooking the Flores Sea, the wilderness hideaway offers full-board accommodation in 17 luxury guest tents. Jungle treks on Moyo provide the chance to discover waterfalls and a variety of birdlife. The protected marine park offers some of the best scuba diving and snorkelling in Indonesia, with pristine reefs boasting a rich array of sea life.

100

Amanwana ('peaceful forest') is located on Moyo, an island paradise east of Bali that officially became Indonesia's 55th National Park in August 2022. Set on a beach overlooking the turquoise waters of a protected marine park, the full-board wilderness hideaway offers 17 luxury guest tents, a beachside restaurant, a tranquil spa and its own Dive Centre. Ideal for private buyouts making the camp your own personal Eden, Amanwana provides unparalleled access to some of the best scuba diving and snorkelling in Indonesia. Inland the island boasts cascading waterfalls, hidden caves and a wealth of birdlife.

300

Amanwana ('peaceful forest') is located on Moyo, an island paradise east of Bali that officially became Indonesia's 55th National Park in August 2022. Set on a beach overlooking the turquoise waters of a protected marine park, the wilderness hideaway offers full-board accommodation in 17 luxury guest tents and provides unparalleled access to some of the best scuba diving and snorkelling in Indonesia.

Located an hour's flight east of Bali over the mountains of Lombok, then a scenic 45-minute boat ride north of Sumbawa often accompanied by dolphins and flying fish, Amanwana rests in a secluded cove on Moyo's west coast. Backed by lush jungle in which waterfalls, caves and a wealth of birdlife await discovery, the camp itself overlooks Amanwana Bay. The Amanwana Dive Centre offers a range of PADI-accredited courses, and the experienced team knows the plethora of local dive sites in exceptional detail.

The camp's 58-square-metre luxury guest tents enjoy ocean view or beachfront settings beneath a crown of tropical forest. Each is constructed on a solid foundation, with wooden walls and large picture windows rising to a soaring canvas canopy. Fully air-conditioned with hardwood flooring, each offers a spacious lounge area with a writing desk, as well as a king-size bed and a large open concept bathroom. Wireless Internet access is available in guest tents and throughout the resort.

Looking out over Amanwana Bay towards Medang Island, the Restaurant is located in an open-air pavilion with a lofty 15-metre coconut-leaf roof. Fresh and simple all-day dining includes a range of local and international dishes with a special focus on seafood and produce from the camp's organic garden. Amanwana guests can enjoy massages, facials and body treatments with Aman's all-natural skincare products in the dedicated Spa Tent, and in the comfort of their own guest tents.

Amanwana ('peaceful forest') is located on Moyo, an island paradise east of Bali that officially became Indonesia's 55th National Park in August 2022. Set on a beach overlooking the turquoise waters of a protected marine park, the wilderness hideaway offers full-board accommodation in 17 luxury guest tents and provides unparalleled access to some of the best scuba diving and snorkelling in Indonesia.

Located an hour's flight east of Bali over the mountains of Lombok, then a scenic 45-minute boat ride north of Sumbawa often accompanied by dolphins and flying fish, Amanwana rests in a secluded cove on Moyo's west coast. Backed by lush jungle in which cascading waterfalls, intriguing caves and a wealth of colourful birdlife await discovery, the camp itself overlooks Amanwana Bay. Here pristine reefs boast a rich array of sea life just offshore. The island is also home to the indigenous rusa deer, often spotted from Amanwana's guest tents, beachside restaurant and tranquil spa.

The camp's 58-square-metre luxury guest tents enjoy ocean view or beachfront settings beneath a crown of tropical forest. Each is constructed on a solid foundation, with wooden walls and large picture windows rising to a soaring canvas canopy. Fully air-conditioned with hardwood flooring and collector's art pieces, each offers a spacious lounge area with a writing desk, as well as a king-size bed and a large open concept bathroom. Wireless Internet access is available in guest tents and throughout the resort.

Looking out over Amanwana Bay towards Medang Island and the mountains of Sumbawa, the Restaurant is located in an open-air pavilion with a lofty 15-metre coconut-leaf roof. Indonesian hardwood flooring and solid coconut pillars support the tropical structure, which offers alfresco and undercover dining, a teak-top bar and a lounging area. Open throughout the day and ideally positioned for sunset drinks, the Restaurant serves fresh and simple local and international dishes, with seafood a speciality. Romantic campfire dinners on the beach and starlight dinner cruises can be arranged.

Amanwana's dedicated Spa Tent, with double treatment beds, air conditioning, and bath facilities, is set just back from The Restaurant beneath a grove of tamarind trees. Amanwana guests can also enjoy massages, facials, and body treatments with Aman's all-natural skincare products in the comfort of their own guest tents. Opportunities for relaxation and activity abound at Amanwana, both on land and at sea. Mother Nature reigns supreme across more than 32,000 hectares of protected jungle crisscrossed by hiking and mountain biking trails.

Amanwana's fleet of boats can be chartered for snorkelling expeditions and whale shark excursions, island-hopping day trips and relaxing sunrise, sunset or starlit cruises. The Amanwana Dive Centre offers a range of PADI-accredited courses, and the experienced team knows the plethora of local dive sites in exceptional detail.

Amanwana guests can extend their Indonesia journey with stays at Amandari, Aman Villas at Nusa Dua and Amankila on Bali, Amanjiwo in Central Java or aboard Amandira, a luxury yacht exploring the less-visited corners of the archipelago.